DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) The invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by United States Patent 2,609,716 B. G. Forman.

Foreman discloses the same invention comprising a first elongated rectangular housing (the upper half of 11), a second elongated rectangular housing (the lower half of 11), a cutting element comprising first and second blade sections (14), and a channel formed by channel members (18).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 1/23/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The applicant argues that Forman does not teach, suggest, or show a cutting element having a generally linear cutting edge. However, as it is clearly see in all of the figures of Forman the distal ends of both the first and second elongated housing portions each have multiple cutting elements. Each of these cutting elements comprises a generally linear cutting edge.

The applicant further argues that the device of Forman is incapable of being advanced through tissue to slice through and harvest a discrete segment of tissue. This is no persuasive because this recitation is simply an intended use. Furthermore the device of Forman is designed for cutting and with enough force it would be fully capable of cutting a discrete segment of tissue.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
